

JULY		HIGH SCHOOL		WEEK 4
READING	MATH	SCIENCE	LIFE SKILLS
Read a book this week! 9th Grade  The Call of the Wild            Jack London 10th Grade  The Book Thief            by Markus Zusack 11th Grade  Harlem Summer            by Walter Dean Myers 12th Grade  A Streetcar Named Desire            by Tennessee Williams	Fun Way to Learn about Probability  https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KzfwUEJG18	Contribute to Your Community Environment/Ecology Togther 2 friends in high school did and to their surprise won a small scholarship towards college: Make a recycling video and ask to have it put on your schools website. Had 3 basket-net styled recycling bins to cafeteria Had the highschool teachers commit to turning off the computers at the end of each day. Save estimated $15,000 a year. Join an Environmental Club and become involved in one of their projects With a friend, your family, or religious organization, spend a morning picking up the trash at your local park or beach.	Whether your child is working or getting an allowance, it is time to make sure that he learns how to save money. If s/he does not have a savings account, then go with your child to your local bank and have him open up an account. Have a discussion with your child about paying himself first before spending on fun or paying bills. Have him take 10% off his weekly "income" and deposit it in his savings account.
Click on Logo 		© 2019 SUPER SCIENCE FAIR PROJECTS  Ideas, Topics &amp; Experiments            Science Fair Kits &amp; Display Boards		